

Brocamp Attendee Guidelines

At Brototype, the goal is not just to teach tech, but to help transform lives. This journey demands commitment, discipline, and a shared sense of responsibility. To ensure that everyone moves forward together, it is important for every attendee to follow a clear and consistent set of guidelines.

This document outlines everything attendees need to know about being part of Brocamp, from the basic code of conduct and workspace etiquette to essential terms, conditions, and policies that promote fairness and accountability. Adhering to these guidelines will protect each attendee's progress, foster a healthy learning environment, and ensure consistent progress toward success.

For any queries or assistance, please email admissions@brototype.com

1. General

1.1 All offline attendees are expected to adhere to the mandatory working hours, which are from 9:00 AM to 5:30 PM, Monday to Saturday. Maintaining attendance during these hours is important to ensure smooth operations, productivity, and discipline. Attendees are required to punch in upon arrival and punch out when leaving using the tool provided by the administration. This helps ensure accurate attendance tracking and promotes punctuality. Please note that failure to punch in may result in being marked absent for the day.

1.2 Punctuality is an integral aspect of maintaining professional decorum. All attendees are expected to arrive at the workspace on time, no later than 9:00 AM. In the event of a delay due to significant or unavoidable reasons, attendees are required to complete the official Late Arrival Notification Form before 9:00 AM and subsequently report to the workspace by 10:00 AM. Failure to fulfill this protocol will result in restricted access to the workspace for the day, and the absence will be recorded as full-day leave.

1.3 Attendees are encouraged to demonstrate their commitment by staying at the workspace until the scheduled working hours conclude. If an attendee anticipates the need to leave early due to compelling reasons, early departure is permissible only after 4:30 PM. In such cases, attendees must complete the Early Departure Form and notify their assigned batch counselor in advance. This process facilitates appropriate planning and ensures minimal disruption to operational workflows. Failure to adhere to this procedure will result in the day's absence being classified as full-day leave.

1.4 Attendees must avoid repeated late arrivals or early leave patterns to promote consistency, attendance stability, and optimal productivity. Any instance of arriving late or leaving early more than once per week, regardless of the reason, will lead to restricted entry and be treated as a full-day leave for that day.

1.5 To sustain uninterrupted workflow and concentration, attendees are required to avoid taking breaks during the critical period between 9:00 AM and 11:00 AM. If an attendee requires a break exceeding one hour at any time during the day, prior notification to the batch counselor is mandatory, and approval must be obtained.

1.6 Half-day leave requests must be submitted on time. Attendees intending to take a half-day leave must complete and submit the official Half-Day Leave Form before 9:00 AM on the day in question. Upon approval, the attendee must report to the workspace no later than 1:30 PM. Failure to fulfill this directive will result in the denial of workspace access for the entire day, with the absence recorded as full-day leave.

1.7 All remote attendees are required to maintain a professional and conducive environment for their participation in the program. This includes having access to a fully functional laptop based on the decided domain, a high-speed internet connection with a minimum bandwidth of 100 Mbps, and a workspace that is free from distractions. Ensuring these prerequisites is critical to seamless participation and productive engagement in all program activities.

1.8 Remote attendees and attendees in the foundation period must dedicate a minimum of eight (8) hours per day to the program. This includes two distinct time slots, totaling four (4) hours each, one of which at least one slot must fall within standard office hours, i.e., 9:00 AM to 5:30 PM (IST). These dedicated slots are crucial for facilitating meetings, exams, communication sessions, and collaborative activities. Failure to adhere to these time commitments, including attendance at mandatory communication sessions and scheduled meetings, will result in the day being recorded as absent.

1.9 Attendees are required to install and utilize a monitoring tool for tracking daily attendance and activity. The monitoring tool serves as a comprehensive mechanism to log attendees' login and logout times, ensuring strict adherence to attendance requirements and participation benchmarks. Attendees must ensure that its installation is completed promptly when instructed. Compliance with monitoring protocols is non-negotiable.

1.10 The subscription fee for the monitoring tool will be free for the initial year. For candidates whose program durations exceed 12 Months, attendees are required to make monthly payments for the extended duration. Failure to make timely payments for this additional duration will result in exams and other assessments being placed on hold until all outstanding dues are cleared.

1.11 As part of the program's structured attendance policy, both offline and remote attendees are entitled to a maximum of two days of approved leave per calendar month. Leave requests must be submitted through the designated leave application form before 9:00 AM IST on the day of intended absence.

Attendance records of remote attendees will be meticulously tracked via the monitoring tool in conjunction with participation metrics from meetings and scheduled sessions.

1.12 Requests for leave extending beyond the two-day monthly allowance necessitate prior approval from the assigned batch counselor. Such requests must be formally communicated via email and must include:

- A. Exact dates of the requested leave.
- B. Justification for the leave request.
- C. Any relevant supporting documentation.

1.13 Approval of extended leave requests is contingent upon verification of the validity of the provided reasons and documentation.

1.14 Attendees are reminded of the importance of providing accurate and up-to-date personal information, including contact details of parents/ guardians. Ensuring the validity and accuracy of these details is crucial for maintaining effective communication and operational efficiency.

1.15 A commitment to maintaining exemplary attendance is fundamental to the program's ethos. Offline and remote attendees must uphold a minimum attendance rate of 80% throughout the program.

1.16 The first 4 weeks of the program will constitute the Foundation.

1.17 Additional Notes on Professionalism and Conduct:

- A. Attendees must exhibit professional behavior and uphold the integrity of the program at all times.
- B. Collaborative and respectful engagement with peers and counselors is mandatory.
- C. Attendees are responsible for ensuring the reliability and security of their technological setups to avoid potential disruptions like network instability, connectivity problems, and laptop malfunctions, to maintain a smooth learning experience.
- D. Active engagement and timely participation in all program activities are fundamental to the attendee's successful progression through the curriculum.
- E. Accurate and up-to-date personal contact information must be maintained at all times to facilitate effective communication with program administrators and batch counselors.

1.18 The academic operations of attendees are facilitated through third-party software services or Brototype's proprietary software, designed to ensure the smooth and efficient execution of all academic processes. Attendees are required to use the designated platform to maintain seamless functionality and a streamlined academic experience.

1.19 Batch Counselors

The batch counselors serve as the primary point of contact for attendees, offering essential support and personalized guidance on various academic matters. This includes assistance with attendance-related queries, domain switches, exam discussions, clarifying doubts about tasks, and addressing any other academic concerns that may arise. Batch counselors play a crucial role in fostering a supportive learning environment by closely monitoring the progress of each attendee, ensuring they stay on track and achieve their goals. Their dedicated efforts are aimed at enhancing the overall learning experience and helping attendees navigate their academic journey with confidence.

1.20 To ensure a smooth learning experience, attendees are kindly requested to clear all fees or payments due within the timeframe provided. In case of any pending dues beyond the specified period, the program may be temporarily paused and will resume once the payment is completed.

1.21 The program follows the Brototype Research and Outcome-oriented (BRO) learning method. It is an approach that engages attendees in research-based activities, aiming to achieve measurable outcomes by applying knowledge to solve real-world problems through guided self-learning.

1.22 Duration

- A. The program spans 52 weeks of tasks and 52 additional exam days, emphasizing timely task completion to ensure consistent academic progress and skill development.
- B. The program is designed to be completed within thirty (30) months from the Foundation Start Date, defined as the date on which the candidate attends their first Foundation batch workshop. This timeline is intended to support consistent learning and ensure timely completion. Support and guidance will no longer be available after this period.
- C. The total program duration does not pause or extend for breaks, domain switches, holds, delays, PRP, refresh periods, cool-off periods, missed exams, or any other absences; all such periods are included in the total duration.
- D. If attendees wish to continue beyond the initial 30 months, they may do so by paying a fee of ₹5,000/- (including GST) per remaining module, which will grant a duration of two weeks per module to complete.

2. Office and Workspace Regulations

2.1 Formal Attire and Professional Conduct

2.1.1 Offline attendees are required to present themselves in formal attire during their time on the office premises, and remote attendees are required to present themselves in formal attire during meetings, exams, communication sessions, and all collaborative activities of the program. Adherence to formal attire is required for all participants, even in virtual meetings, to maintain professionalism and proper etiquette. This practice ensures consistency and contributes to long-term improvements in professional behaviour.

2.1.2 All attendees are required to keep their cameras and mic turned on throughout online communication sessions and any related virtual meetings. This measure is intended to promote active engagement, ensure attentiveness, and enable trainers to provide personalized feedback based on visual cues.

2.1.3 Attendees who do not meet this requirement may receive warnings and could be marked absent for the session. Consistent non-compliance may require additional corrective measures to ensure alignment with program expectations.

2.2 ID Card Policy

2.2.1 The ID card serves as proof of authorization and ensures seamless access to designated areas within the premises. Therefore, offline attendees are required to wear their official ID cards at all times while on the office premises.

2.2.2 Attendees must ensure the safekeeping of their ID cards and are strictly prohibited from sharing or lending them to unauthorized individuals. Misuse or loss of the ID card must be reported immediately to the Administration Department. A charge may apply for replacing a lost ID card.

2.2.3 Upon successful Placement after completion of the program, voluntary withdrawal, termination, or transition to a remote batch, attendees are required to promptly return their ID card to the program administrators. Failure to return the ID card may result in applicable charges.

2.3 Workstation Assignment and Maintenance

2.3.1 Each offline attendee will be assigned a specific workstation for the duration of the program. It is the responsibility of the attendee to occupy and utilize only the designated workspace. Unauthorized use of another attendee's workstation is strictly prohibited.

Packapeer Academy Pvt. Ltd

INDUSTRIALPARK,CALICUT UNIVERSITY PO KAKKANHERI Malappuram KL 673635 IN

GSTIN : 32AAKCP533INIZ7, talk@brototype.com

2.3.2 Offline attendees must maintain cleanliness and orderliness at their assigned workstations. Personal belongings should be arranged neatly to ensure a clutter-free workspace that promotes efficiency and focus.

2.3.3 Any damage to the workstation or office property, whether accidental or intentional, may result in temporary denial of entry to the hub/workstation and may require payment for repair or replacement costs. Attendees can regain access after settling any outstanding dues.

2.3.4 Attendees are advised to store personal belongings securely and exercise caution while bringing valuables to the office. Brototype assumes no liability for any loss, theft, or damage to personal items stored or left unattended within the premises.

2.3.5 Lockers or other secure storage options, if provided, are to be used at the attendee's discretion. Proper usage guidelines for such facilities must be followed at all times.

2.3.6 Access to office premises is limited to designated spaces and authorized areas. Attendees must refrain from entering restricted zones without prior approval from the administration. Trespassing into unauthorized areas constitutes a serious violation of program policies.

2.3.7 Attendees are expected to respect the boundaries and rules set forth for different sections of the premises, including common areas, meeting rooms, and other facilities.

2.4 Facilitation Fee

2.4.1 A facilitation fee covers essential expenses, like utilities, workspace maintenance, internet, drinking water, air conditioning, and other support services, to enhance the program experience, and it is only applicable for offline candidates.

2.4.2 Attendees have the option to pay the facilitation fee either as a one-time payment or through monthly payments. Attendees who have passed the foundation can continue the program only after completing the facilitation fee payment.

2.4.3 If the attendee paid the facilitation charge as a one-time payment for a year and extended the program beyond the initial one-year period, attendees are required to make monthly payments for the extended duration.

2.4.4 In cases of delayed facilitation fee payments, the following penalties and restrictions will apply:

A. Weekly exams and other assessments will be placed on hold until all outstanding dues are cleared.

B. A daily penalty of ₹200 will be levied for each day of delay beyond the payment due date.

2.4.5 The monthly facilitation fee is due by the 3rd of each month till the program completion. Entry to the hub/workstation will be restricted if the payment is not cleared by the 5th of each month. Attendees who complete their payments after this date can regain access by clearing the due amount along with the applicable fine.

2.4.6 It is the responsibility of the attendee to ensure timely payments and maintain financial compliance throughout the program.

2.4.7 The monthly facilitation fee is subject to periodic revision based on industry standards and the selected location.

3. Foundation Period

3.1.1 The Foundation Period will be conducted exclusively online, spanning four (4) weeks. This structured phase includes weekly evaluations designed to assess and reinforce attendees' understanding and progress.

3.1.2 Attendees must have a laptop and a proper internet connection.

3.1.3 Attendees needed to participate in tech interactions, communication interactions, meetings, and all exams in proper formal attire.

3.1.4 Before entering the Foundation Period, it is mandatory for all attendees to complete the designated workshop.

3.1.5 If an Attendee skips a day/ session in the workshop, they will be moved to the next batch, and their first attempt will be marked as failed.

3.1.6 Foundation period starts on the very next day of the workshop.

3.1.7 All attendees are encouraged to engage with the Foundation Period in a manner that reflects dedication, professionalism, and a commitment to self-improvement. Active participation in sessions, timely submission of tasks, and collaborative engagement with peers and mentors are essential for success.

3.1.8 Attendees should proactively seek clarification or assistance from their batch counselor or designated mentors if they encounter difficulties. Leveraging available resources and support mechanisms will enhance the likelihood of successful completion of the Foundation Period.

3.1.9 Attendees are encouraged to actively participate in the daily communication sessions at their workspaces, as these are designed to strengthen skills and build a solid foundation for the next stages of the program.

3.1.10 Attendees will receive daily communication tasks, including written and audio tasks. Its submission time will be 11:00 PM (IST).

3.1.11 Communication Exams During the Four-Week Foundation Period:

Week 1: A group exam for evaluating collaborative communication skills and teamwork

Week 2: An individual exam to assess each participant's communication abilities and identify areas for improvement.

Week 3: A group exam to build on progress made during the first group exam.

Week 4: A major exam that considers all prior exams (Weeks 1–3) as mock exams to prepare participants for a final assessment of their overall communication performance during the foundation period.

3.1.12 If an attendee faces challenges in English communication during the Final Foundation Exam, they will have the opportunity to undergo a six-week probation period to enhance their communication skills. During this phase, attendees have to participate in specially assigned sessions and complete tasks tailored to address specific areas for improvement, ensuring their progress and success.

3.2 Daily Commitment and Time Slot Allocation

3.2.1 Attendees are expected to dedicate a minimum of eight (8) hours per day to the program in the Foundation. This includes two (2) distinct time slots, totaling four (4) hours each, one of which must fall within standard office hours (9:00 AM to 5:30 PM IST). This arrangement facilitates seamless scheduling of meetings, communication & technical interactions, and collaborative activities.

3.2.2 Failure to follow the assigned working hours or non-participation in requisite sessions, and exams will be recorded as an absence. Attendees are encouraged to proactively communicate any challenges or constraints to their batch counselor to mitigate potential issues.

3.2.3 Attendees must complete the daily workouts given by the Tech team and the Communication Team.

3.2.4 Attendees are encouraged to maintain a minimum attendance rate of 80% throughout the Foundation Period to ensure a successful learning experience. Attendance is assessed based on participation in technical and communication interactions, as well as weekly exams. Non-compliance with these attendance standards will adversely impact progression within the program.

3.2.5 Attendees with a minimum attendance rate of 80% during the Foundation Period will be eligible to participate in the Final Foundation Exam.

3.2.6 If attendees need to take additional leave during the Foundation Period, they need to seek permission from the respective authorities in advance.

3.2.7 If an attendee fails the Foundation Exam, they can join the very next batch to increase the probability of success in their next attempt.

3.2.8 If the attendee fails to attend mock exams or foundation exams, they will be moved to the next batch, and the current attempt will be marked as failed.

3.2.9 Attendees who passed the Foundation are required to continue the program on the very next intake date. Intake date will be communicated through official communication channels. Delays or postponements are not recommended.

3.2.10 Attendees are encouraged to finalize their domains during their batch's domain discussion sessions.

3.2.11 After passing the foundation, attendees must maintain consistent daily learning hours in the monitoring tool — a minimum of 8 hours for online learners and 6 hours for offline learners. This will be monitored by batch counselors to ensure progress and support. Continued participation requires meeting these learning standards.

3.3 Evaluation and Advancement Mechanism

3.3.1 The Foundation Period is structured into four sequential modules, with each module designed to be completed over one week, as outlined below:

- A. Modules 1-3: Mock exams are conducted to simulate the final evaluation process, providing attendees with opportunities to identify and address areas requiring improvement.
- B. Module 4: The Foundation Period concludes with the Final Foundation Exam. Attendees who achieve a passing score of five (5) out of ten (10) will be eligible to advance further in the program.

3.3.2 Attendees failing the Final Foundation Exam during their initial attempt will be transitioned to the next available batch. Such attendees are permitted up to two (2) additional Foundation Periods to qualify, thereby allowing a total of three (3) attempts to pass the Final Foundation Exam.

3.3.3 If an attendee uses all three (3) permissible attempts without qualifying, they'll enter into the Foundation Performance Recovery Period (FPRP). This period is designed to help the attendee step back, identify learning gaps, reassess their approach, and focus on targeted improvement without the pressure of continuous exams. During the FPRP, access to academic resources will be temporarily paused to encourage focused, independent preparation and accountability. Once the attendee successfully clears the pending exam, full access will be restored, enabling them to progress with stronger readiness and confidence. Attendees must inform their willingness to attend the exam by sending an email request to the Foundation Counsellor at fumigation.counsellor@brototype.com. Upon receiving the request, the exam will be scheduled within two (2) days.

3.3.4 Attendees who are confident in their basic programming fundamentals have the option to directly take the Final Foundation exam in any of their three (3) allotted attempts by paying a fee of ₹500 at any point during their foundation period. If the attendee successfully qualifies for the exam, the ₹500 fee will be fully refunded. However, if they do not qualify, the ₹500 fee will not be refunded, and the attempt will be counted as failed. This option provides a flexible pathway for those confident in their skills.

4. Exams

4.1.1 The exams during the program will be conducted on online video call platforms. Attendees must keep the camera and mic turned on throughout the entire exams conducted during the program.

4.1.2 Weekly exams are scheduled on a fixed day corresponding to the module number throughout the program. The exam dates and times will be communicated in advance. Brototype reserves the right to modify the scheduled days if necessary.

4.1.3 Offline attendees are expected to attend all scheduled exams from their assigned workspace to ensure an optimal learning experience, as remote attendance is not permitted.

4.1.4 Attendees can raise a concern about their exam results to 10 times during the program. Updates on concerns will be provided within 2 days. If the concern is found to be genuine, the limit will remain unaffected. However, if the QA Team determines that the concern is not valid after a thorough exam, the remaining concern limit will be reduced.

4.1.5 The exams may be divided into multiple sessions if needed to ensure that each topic is addressed by examiners with specialized expertise. This approach is designed to provide attendees with the best possible understanding and learning experience for the subject matter. Attendees need to achieve the minimum pass mark in all divided exams to clear the respective module's exam.

4.1.6 To ensure fairness and eliminate any chances of malpractice, all attendees are requested to place an additional camera during exams, positioned to show both the desk and the screen.

4.1.7 Mock interviews/ exams will be scheduled by Brototype based on the availability of subject experts. If a reschedule is required due to the expert's unavailability, a suitable alternative time slot will be provided.

4.2 Task Completion and Submission Requirements

4.2.1 All attendees must complete the assigned tasks for each module within seven (7) days from the date of task issuance, with exams conducted on the 8th day.

4.2.2 Upon completing the tasks, attendees must upload their deliverables to their designated platform, no later than 11:00 PM (IST) on the day immediately preceding the scheduled exam day. Timely submissions are mandatory and form the basis for eligibility to participate in the weekly examination process.

4.2.3 Access to program resources and exams may be temporarily paused in the event of any outstanding fee dues, including program fees, facilitation fees, domain switch payments, monitoring tool charges, or payments through third-party financing companies, or if minimum participation requirements in LeetCode, communication, or fitness-related activities are not met. Clearing all outstanding dues and completing the required assessments or sessions, along with meeting the participation standards, will ensure uninterrupted access to all program benefits.

4.3 Exam Assessment Criteria and Progression Standards

4.3.1 To successfully move to the next module, attendees are encouraged to aim for a minimum qualifying score of five (5) out of ten (10) in the exam. This requirement ensures fair and consistent evaluation standards for all participants, supporting their growth and progress.

4.3.2 If an attendee fails to secure the minimum qualifying score in the exam, it will be considered a failure. The attendee will be required to complete the assigned tasks for the same module and appear for a supplementary exam after a mandatory interval of six (6) days, subject to adherence to the prescribed submission protocols.

4.3.3 After the exam is completed, the exam status will be marked as Pass or Fail. If the exam is not attended, it will be marked as Absent.

4.3.4 Absence from exams is not encouraged and is permitted only for valid reasons, such as medical emergencies. If a candidate is absent for two consecutive exams, the candidate must submit a written clarification via email, along with supporting documents (for example, medical records), within three (3) days. If no response is received or if the clarification is deemed unsatisfactory, a video call meeting with the parent may be arranged to better understand the situation. The student may attend upcoming exams only after completing this process.

4.3.5 To help maintain smooth exam scheduling, a fine of ₹1,000/- will apply only in cases of unauthorized exam absences. Candidates can avoid this fine by informing the Batch Counsellor at least 2 days in advance of the preferred exam date.

4.3.6 If an attendee faces challenges and does not clear the particular module's exam after three consecutive attempts will be moved to the PRP (Performance Recovery Period). Through this, we encourage them to take a step back, reflect, and focus on improvement. During this time, academic resources will be paused to allow them to prepare effectively and independently. Once they clear the particular exam, all access will be fully restored, supporting them to move forward with renewed confidence.

4.3.7 Attendees who are unable to attend a scheduled exam on the designated date may request a postponement. An exam can be postponed for a maximum of two days, subject to the following conditions:

- A. The request must be based on a genuine emergency.
- B. The request must be communicated to both the Batch Counselor and the Exam Coordinator at least two (2) days before the preferred exam date.
- C. If an exam is postponed, the next exam date will be adjusted by subtracting the postponed days from the next exam date.
- D. Consecutive two exam postponements are not promoted.

4.3.7 If the above stipulations are not met, the attendee will have the opportunity to attend the exam in the subsequent week.

4.3.8 Attendees who are unable to attend a scheduled exam on time will have the exam considered absent. They will have the opportunity to attend the exam in the following week.

4.3.9 Attendees are expected to complete the minimum required hours mentioned in Section 3.2.11 on the monitoring tool for at least two days each week. If this is not met, the exam will be temporarily put on hold.

4.4 Refresh Period

4.4.1 If a candidate does not attend weekly exams for 28 consecutive days, the candidate will be moved to a one-month Refresh Period. This period is intended to allow the candidate to step back, reflect, and focus on improvement. During the Refresh Period, access to the workspace and academic resources will be temporarily paused.

4.4.2 The candidate will have one (1) month to complete the Post-Refresh exam for the last module they attended. Upon successfully passing the Post-Refresh exam, full access will be restored, allowing the candidate to continue the program.

4.5 Cool Off Period

4.5.1 If a candidate does not pass the Post-Refresh exam or is unable to attend the Post-Refresh exams within the Refresh Period, the candidate will be moved to the Cool-Off Period. This step allows the candidate time to reassess readiness, commitment, and learning approach, and to identify and resolve any factors that may be holding back their learning before re-engaging with the program. During the Cool Off Period, access to the workspace and academic resources will be temporarily paused.

4.5.2 The candidate will have six (6) months to complete the Post Cool Off exam for the last module they attended. Upon successfully passing the Post Cool Off exam, full access will be restored, allowing the candidate to continue the program.

4.6 Course Continuation Process

Attendees must inform the Brototype of their readiness and willingness to attend the post refresh/cool-off exams by email to the respective counselor's email ID during the refresh/cool-off periods to initiate the course continuation procedure. If there is no update from the attendee within two weeks after the end of the refresh/cool-off periods or failure to attend the mandatory post refresh/cool-off exams, it will be considered a voluntary withdrawal from the program and may result in the removal of enrollment without further notice.

4.7 LeetCode-Based Tests

4.7.1 Attendees are required to participate in monthly LeetCode-based tests to enhance problem-solving skills. In cases where an attendee fails the LeetCode-based test, their exams will be placed on hold until they successfully qualify in a retest.

4.7.2 Attendees can attend the retest after a minimum interval of 3 days. Attendees must complete the retest within 1 week of the original test date. If an attendee fails the retest, they will be eligible for another retest within 1 week.

4.7.3 If an attendee fails to attend or qualify in the LeetCode-based test, the upcoming exam will be put on hold. This ensures that exams are conducted only after the required problem-solving competency has been demonstrated. The attendee can resume attending exams only after successfully qualifying the LeetCode-based test.

4.8 Domain Switching

4.8.1 Attendees are permitted to switch domains only with approval from the QA Team.

4.8.2 Attendees may switch their domain only once during the entire course period.

4.8.3 If attendees choose to switch their domain after completing Module 5, a fee of ₹5,000/- (including GST) will be charged for each module up to the most recent exam attended. This fee ensures a smooth transition and enables attendees to revisit the same module in the new domain with comprehensive support. Please note that the amount is non-refundable under any circumstances.

4.8.4 Domain switching does not affect the duration calculation. This is to ensure fairness, consistency, and equal learning timelines across all attendees, while encouraging informed and responsible domain selection. Attendees are required to complete the course within the stipulated duration, even after a domain switch.

4.8.5 Requests for domain switching must be submitted via email to the respective batch counselor, with a CC to the QA Head, and should include the reason for the transition.

4.8.6 Approval for the domain switch will be contingent on feedback from the QA meeting and will be subject to evaluation.

4.9 Remote Batch Switching

4.9.1 Attendees enrolled in offline batches have the option to switch to a remote batch between the 12th and 40th modules of the program, subject to prior approval.

4.9.2 Approval for the switching is based on the attendee's academic performance and is subject to a thorough evaluation by the assigned batch Counselor.

4.9.3 Attendees enrolled in offline batches who wish to switch to a remote batch must submit their request via email between the 15th and 25th day of the month. The request must include a genuine and clearly stated reason, along with supporting documentation. A parent meeting is mandatory as part of the process. Final approval for the batch switch will be at the sole discretion of the counselor, based on the validity of the request and submitted documents.

4.9.4 Upon approval, attendees must comply with all remote batch-specific guidelines and requirements.

4.9.5 Once all procedures and payments are completed, a remote conversion meeting will be conducted by the Remote Associate Counselors, and the attendee will be officially transferred to the Remote batch on the 1st of the following month.

4.9.6 During a remote batch switch, the facilitation fee paid will be on hold, and it will be adjusted when attendees rejoin as offline candidates or will be refunded after successful completion of the program.

4.10 Remote to Offline Switching

4.10.1 Attendees enrolled in remote (online) batches have the option to switch to an offline batch on the 1st of each month. The transfer is contingent upon completing the facilitation fee payment and obtaining approval from the remote batch counselor.

4.10.2 Attendees must submit a transfer request via email between the 15th and 25th of the preceding month.

4.11.3 Upon approval, attendees must adhere to all hub batch-specific guidelines. Students are required to report to the hub on the specified date and meet the hub counselor in person.

5. Communication Sessions

5.1.1 Attendees are encouraged to consistently converse in English during communication sessions and within the workspace. This practice is intended to enhance fluency and build confidence in professional interactions.

5.1.2 Starting from the 7th module, all exams will be conducted in English to help attendees build confidence and enhance their communication skills. While the use of English is encouraged from the beginning, it will become mandatory from the 12th module onward to support attendees' professional growth.

5.1.3 Attendees are required to participate in daily One-hour communication sessions conducted by designated trainers or student coordinators. These sessions are structured to enhance verbal and written communication proficiency, with a focus on fostering effective interaction skills.

5.1.4 Attendance at communication sessions is mandatory. Failure to attend these sessions will result in the day being recorded as full-day leave. Any absence must be justified with prior communication via email and approval from the assigned trainer.

5.1.5 The communication training is conducted in a hybrid mode, with both online and offline sessions for offline attendees and exclusively online training for remote attendees. Hence, attendees are expected to adhere to their designated mode of training to ensure effective participation and continuous improvement.

5.1.6 Daily tasks, including audio notes and other tasks assigned by the trainers, must be submitted no later than 11:00 PM (IST) each day. These submissions are critical for tracking individual progress and ensuring consistent practice. These works are meant for individual practice, and they will not be corrected by the trainer. However, weak attendees will be guided.

5.1.7 Delays in submission will be recorded as non-compliance and may adversely impact the attendee's standing in the program. Exceptions, if any, must be communicated via email to the trainer in advance and supported by valid reasons.

5.1.8 If an attendee has a scheduled technical exam during the communication session time, they are required to proactively communicate with the trainer via email to arrange an alternative session time. This rescheduling must be finalized at least one day in advance.

5.1.9 Attendees are strictly prohibited from skipping communication sessions due to exams unless explicitly permitted under exceptional circumstances.

5.1.10 Communication exams will be conducted by trainers at predefined intervals, specifically during modules 6, 18, 30, 40, and 49 in the program. These exams are designed to evaluate progress and identify areas requiring improvement, and attendance in these periodic exams is mandatory.

5.1.11 Attendees who face challenges in communication skills, as reflected in their performance during the communication exam, will be provided with supplementary tasks and sessions tailored to address specific areas for improvement. Participation in these activities is essential, and trainers will closely support and monitor progress; failure to show improvement may result in holding exams.

5.1.12 If an attendee fails to score at least 50% in the communication probation period assessment, but has shown considerable improvements will be given another chance to attend another Probation Period Assessment after 4 modules, and attendees need to show improvements during this period.

5.1.13 Attendees who are not fulfilling communication probation requirements, including failure to show measurable improvement, will result in a hold on subsequent exams and further disciplinary actions.

6. Boarding Modules

6.1.1 The Boarding Modules are revision modules conducted before the TOI, covering all concepts studied throughout the program. The revision is divided into two modules to ensure a comprehensive understanding and effective reinforcement. At the end of each module, attendees are required to take an exam (Boarding Module 1 and Boarding Module 2), present their completed projects, and complete a machine task as part of the evaluation process.

6.1.2 Boarding Modules is a 12-day intensive interview training program designed to equip Brocamp attendees with the skills and confidence needed to excel in job interviews and boost their chances of being hired. Attendance during the boarding modules is compulsory. Attendees are strictly prohibited from taking breaks before or during the boarding modules.

6.1.3 Postponement of boarding module exams will not be entertained under any circumstances. All the projects completed by the attendee during the program must be live before the Boarding module exams.

6.1.4 Attendance in the Boarding Modules following the final project is mandatory. Participation is subject to successful completion of the Boarding Module Screening, with a maximum of three attempts permitted. Attendees who do not clear the screening will be assigned remedial tasks and must complete all assigned activities in line with the provided feedback. This requirement is implemented to ensure continuity of learning, consistent skill development, and readiness for subsequent program phases.

6.1.5 During the boarding modules, participants are required to diligently complete their daily assigned tasks before 11:00 PM (IST). Non-compliance or delay with this requirement will result in delayed access to the next day's tasks and eventually to the shifting of their batches in the boarding modules.

6.1.6 In addition to completing daily tasks, attending the daily meetings conducted by trainers is mandatory. In the event of unavoidable circumstances that prevent attendance, participants are kindly requested to send an email explaining the reason. This ensures smooth communication and continued engagement.

6.1.7 Attendees are encouraged to successfully clear the Mock TOI within a maximum of three attempts. For those who are unable to clear it within these attempts, additional sessions and guidance will be provided to support their improvement. A final opportunity will then be offered to attempt the Mock TOI and achieve success.

7. TOI (Take-off Interview)

7.1.1 TOI is the final exam of the program and includes all the concepts that the attendee has studied throughout the program. The TOI is a comprehensive evaluation designed to assess attendees' preparedness for job placements in the industry. It is mandatory to pass the TOI for the successful completion of the program.

7.1.2 Attendees have up to three (3) attempts to participate in the TOI, ensuring ample chances to succeed.

7.1.3 The TOI consists of two parts: the HR/Communication round and the technical round. To proceed to the technical round, attendees must successfully clear the HR round. Candidates must pass the HR/Communication round to proceed to the Technical round on the same attempt.

7.1.4 To complete an attempt, both HR and Technical rounds must be attended consecutively. If a candidate passes the HR/Communication round but fails the Technical round, they must restart from the HR/Communication round in the next attempt (If available).

7.1.5 Attendees can participate in TOI after completing the 12-day tasks during the Boarding modules and successfully passing the Mock TOI. These steps are thoughtfully designed to ensure attendees are well-prepared and aligned with their placement goals.

7.2 TOI Qualifying Criteria

To qualify in the TOI, attendees are encouraged to meet all the following minimum criteria:

- A. Achieve a minimum score of 6 out of 10 in each of the following areas: Technical Skills, Communication, Project Evaluation, and Conceptual Clarity.
- B. Achieve a minimum of 3 out of 5 is required in the Practical Evaluation, assessed separately based on the attendee's domain expertise.
- C. Achieve an overall score of 6 out of 10 is also mandatory in Technical Overall, Communication Overall, and TOI Overall—each representing the average of individual evaluations across respective areas.

8. Disciplinary Actions

The following section outlines the behaviors, actions, and violations that may lead to disciplinary action or termination from the program. The expectations outlined are critical for maintaining a conducive learning environment, and any deviation from these guidelines may result in immediate or progressive action. Brototype, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to impose these actions based on the nature and severity of the violation without any prior notice. All attendees are expected to act with integrity, professionalism, and respect toward all participants, employees, stakeholders, and the program's objectives.

8.1 Violations of Academic Honesty and Integrity:

Academic honesty is essential for upholding the integrity of the program. Attendees are encouraged to approach all tasks, tests, exams, and all activities in the program with honesty and ethical standards. By maintaining integrity, we ensure the program's core values are preserved. This includes:

8.1.1 Cheating on Tests or Assignments

Any attendee found participating in unauthorized collaboration, copying, or using unapproved materials during tests, assessments, or assignments will be subject to immediate corrective measures. This includes, but is not limited to, the use of unauthorized resources, online platforms, or sharing answers with others.

8.1.2 Plagiarism

Any form of plagiarism, including directly copying code, content, or any intellectual property without proper citation, will be treated as a serious violation. This includes submitting someone else's work as their work, whether in tests, assignments, or exams.

8.1.3 Misrepresentation of Work

Any attendee who misrepresents their work, including submitting work done by someone else (in whole or in part), will face disciplinary action. This includes using third-party services and tools to complete tasks and submitting the results as their own.

8.1.4 Tampering with Program Results

Any attempt to alter or manipulate evaluation or exam results, whether through technical means or dishonest behavior, will result in immediate expulsion from the program.

8.1.5 Falsification of Records

Maintaining accurate personal records, attendance, and academic documents is essential for the integrity of the program. Any intentional falsification of these records is prohibited and will lead to immediate termination to uphold the program's standards of honesty and transparency.

8.1.6 Actions on Violations of Academic Honesty and Integrity

A. First Violation:

If an Attendee is found guilty of such misconduct, they shall be suspended from the program for one (1) month. During this period, they will be denied access to all sessions, workspaces, events, programs, tests, exams, tasks, activities, sessions, tools, assessments, and learning resources, etc.

B. Second Violation:

A subsequent violation shall result in debarment from the program for one (1) year. During this period, they will be denied access to all sessions, workspaces, events, programs, tests, exams, tasks, activities, sessions, tools, assessments, and learning resources, etc.

8.1.7 Permanent Termination:

In cases of serious misconduct, repetitive violations, or upon a third instance of any breach of conduct, the Attendee may be permanently removed from the program. This decision will be made after reviewing the attendee's past behavior, performance, the nature and intensity of the misconduct, and any recurring patterns. The institution reserves the sole right to take such action without any obligation for re-admission

8.1.8 Rejoining Process:

Attendees must inform the Brototype of their readiness and willingness to rejoin by sending a rejoining request email to the respective counselor's email ID at the end of the suspension/debarment period to initiate the rejoining procedure. If there is no update from the attendee within two weeks after the end of the suspension/debarment period, or failure to attend the exam, it will be considered a voluntary withdrawal from the program.

8.2 Verbal & Non-verbal Harassments

Brototype fosters an inclusive and professional learning environment for all attendees. Any form of verbal, physical, or online harassment is not tolerated and will lead to immediate disciplinary action. Maintaining respectful and supportive communication with fellow attendees, program staff, and stakeholders is essential. Upholding this standard fosters a positive learning environment and aligns with the program's core values.

8.2.1 Physical Harassment or Threats

We are committed to fostering a safe and respectful environment, both on the premises and during online interactions. Attendees are expected to promote positive and non-violent behavior at all times to ensure a harmonious and supportive community.

8.2.2 Discrimination Based on Gender, Race, or Background

We are dedicated to creating an inclusive and equitable environment where everyone is treated with respect, regardless of gender, race, nationality, religion, sex, disability, or any other personal characteristic. Upholding these values is essential to the Brototype community's strength and harmony.

8.2.3 Cyberbullying or Online Harassment

We are committed to ensuring a safe and respectful online environment across all channels, including social media, messaging apps, and program platforms. Positive and supportive interactions are essential to fostering a collaborative community.

8.2.4 Intimidation or Coercion

We encourage a culture of mutual respect and support, where everyone feels free to make their academic and professional decisions without undue influence or pressure. Maintaining this positive environment is key to collective success.

8.2.5 Disrespectful Behavior or Non-Professionalism

We strive to maintain a productive and respectful learning environment where all attendees can thrive. Professional conduct and constructive participation in group activities, discussions, and assessments are essential for fostering collaboration and success. Users are not to use obscene, profane, threatening, or disrespectful language or images in any communications with other users and/or instructors, facilitators, and Brototype staff.

8.3 Failure to Meet Attendance and Participation Requirements

Consistent attendance and active engagement in communication sessions, technical sessions, exams, assignments, assessments, and all activities are key to achieving success and making the most of the learning experience. Meeting the program's attendance and participation expectations ensures a collaborative and rewarding environment for all.

8.3.1 Excessive Absenteeism

Attendees are encouraged to meet the minimum attendance requirements, as outlined in the program guidelines, to ensure continuous learning and growth. Consistent participation in all sessions, including lectures, exams, assignments, assessments, and interactive activities, is vital for a fulfilling and successful program experience. Failure to meet these expectations may result in additional support measures or corrective actions to help attendees stay on track.

8.3.2 Failure to Participate in Scheduled Exams

Active participation in mandatory exams, feedback sessions, and one-on-one assessments is essential for tracking progress and receiving valuable support for improvement. Attendees are encouraged to engage fully in these sessions to enhance their learning experience. Any lack of participation will be addressed to ensure continued growth and success.

8.3.3 Consistent Failure to Meet Assignment Deadlines:

Attendees are encouraged to submit assignments, tests, and tasks on time, as meeting deadlines is essential for maintaining an organized and effective learning environment. Consistently missing deadlines will result in support measures to help attendees stay on track and ensure their success in the program.

8.3.4 Unwarranted Absence from Essential Program Events:

Active participation in scheduled events, such as group discussions, code exams, workshops, skill-building activities, etc, is vital for personal and collective growth. Attendees are encouraged to fully engage in these opportunities. If non-participation continues, support will be provided, and further actions may be taken to help the attendee meet program expectations.

8.3.5 Lack of Engagement in Additional Tasks After Failed TOI Attempts

Attendees who do not complete the TOI (Take off Interview) after three attempts are encouraged to actively engage in additional support tasks or improvement activities. Failure to act on feedback and participate in these improvement opportunities will be addressed to ensure continued progress and alignment with the program's expectations.

8.3.6 Lack of involvement in additional tasks following a failure in communication assessments

The program includes various tasks and activities for attendees who fail the Boarding module screening and Communication Probation. Failure to act on feedback and participate in these improvement opportunities will be addressed to ensure continued progress and alignment with the program's expectations.

8.4 Engagement in Illegal Activities

Brototype expects all attendees to maintain the highest standards of conduct, both within and outside the program. Engaging in illegal activities, harmful behaviors, or actions that could negatively impact the program's or the organization's reputation will result in appropriate corrective actions to uphold the integrity of the community. Engaging in illegal activities, whether on or off the program's premises, including but not limited to theft, fraud, cybercrime, or drug use, is strictly prohibited and will result in immediate dismissal from the program to maintain a safe and lawful environment for all participants.

8.4.1 Substance Abuse Prevention and Drug Testing Policy

To uphold a safe, disciplined, and drug-free learning environment, the Institution reserves the right to conduct periodic, random, and suspicion-based drug tests and screenings on all enrolled attendees throughout the program.

8.4.2 Mandatory Compliance:

All Attendees are required to fully comply with periodic and ad-hoc drug testing and substance use checks as determined by the Institution. Refusal to participate, tampering with samples, or providing false information shall be treated as a serious violation of the Institution's Code of Conduct.

Testing Protocol:

- A. Periodic testing may be conducted at scheduled intervals or randomly without prior notice.
- B. Tests may include screening for illegal drugs, narcotics, and other controlled or prohibited substances.
- C. Tests may be conducted on campus or through a designated third-party agency authorized by the Institution.

8.4.3 Consequences of Violation:

If an Attendee is found to have tested positive for prohibited substances:

- A. First-time offense may lead to temporary suspension and mandatory counseling or rehabilitation (at the Attendee's cost).
- B. Repeated or severe violations will lead to permanent expulsion from the program. This decision will be made after reviewing the attendee's past behavior, performance, the nature and intensity of the misconduct, and any recurring patterns. The institution reserves the sole right to take such action without any obligation for re-admission.

C. Brototype reserves the right to notify legal authorities if required under law.

8.4.4 Violating Regulatory Policies or Program Guidelines

Adhering to Brototype's policies, guidelines, and regulations is essential for maintaining a positive and productive learning environment. Failure to comply with the code of conduct, intellectual property regulations, or general behavioral and performance expectations may result in corrective actions to ensure alignment with the program's standards.

8.4.5 Misuse of Program Resources

- A. Any attempt to misuse or abuse program resources, like using company systems for personal activities, fraudulently accessing databases, etc, will result in immediate termination from the program to protect the integrity and security of all resources.
- B. Resources provided by Brototype, such as communication platforms, study materials, tools, or facilities, should only be used for activities directly related to the program. Attendees are discouraged from using these resources for personal discussions or topics unrelated to the program to maintain focus and ensure proper utilization of the resources.
- C. Brototype's learning platform, resources, attendee networks, groups, social media circles, or any other community platform associated with Brototype or others shouldn't be used to advertise, market, or share information about external products, services, or businesses. (Discord, Slack, Telegram, WhatsApp, or other groups and platforms).
- D. Attendees must not encourage or influence other Brototype attendees, mentors, staff, or community members to leave, withdraw, mislead, or transfer to another institute, business, or platform—whether for personal gain or on behalf of others—through any online or offline medium.

8.4.6 Engaging in Activities That Harm Program Reputation

Attendees are expected to act in ways that positively reflect Brototype's reputation and foster strong relationships with program participants. Attendees found engaging in activities that can harm the program's standing, such as spreading misinformation, online harassment, or defamation, or actions that harm the organization's reputation, goodwill, or disrupt these relationships, may lead to disciplinary actions to maintain a positive and collaborative environment.

8.4.7 Violation of Confidentiality Agreements

Breach of confidentiality agreements, whether during or after the program, including the unauthorized sharing of proprietary information, program materials, or data, will lead to immediate expulsion and potential legal action. It is the responsibility of attendees to ensure that all Brototype resources provided to them as part of the learning program are accessed only by themselves. No other individual or organisation is permitted to access any Brototype learning resources (in whole or part) that have been provided to attendees as part of the learning program. Attendees are prohibited from sharing any data that is part of the program.

8.4.8 Prohibited Use of Institutional Resources for Illegal Activities

Attendees are strictly prohibited from engaging in any illegal, unethical, or criminal activities using the resources, platforms, or infrastructure provided by the Institution. This includes physical, digital, technical, and intellectual assets such as internet access, devices, communication tools, software platforms, learning management systems, and institutional branding.

Brototype shall not be held responsible or liable for any unlawful acts committed by Attendees using its resources. Any such misuse will be treated as a serious violation of the Institution's Code of Conduct.

Prohibited Activities Include (but are not limited to):

- A. Cybercrimes such as hacking, unauthorized access to systems or data, phishing, or the distribution of malware.
- B. Financial fraud, including online scams, identity theft, or money laundering.
- C. Distribution or promotion of pornography, obscenity, or explicit content.
- D. Human trafficking, sex trafficking, or any form of exploitation or abuse facilitated through digital or physical means.
- E. Drug-related activities such as coordinating the distribution, sale, or promotion of illegal substances.
- F. Extortion, blackmail, or threatening behavior using institutional communication channels.

- J. Use of Brototype platforms to coordinate or participate in any form of organized crime or conspiracy.

Brototype reserves the right to report and share all relevant data and evidence with law enforcement agencies or legal authorities, as required.

8.5 Non-Compliance with Placement Regulations

Brototype's Placement Cell is a key resource for attendees seeking job opportunities post-program. Any violation of the policies related to placements may lead to disciplinary actions.

8.5.1 Unauthorized Absences from Placement-Related Activities

Failure to attend placement meetings, interviews, or networking sessions without prior authorization will be treated as a breach of placement protocols.

8.5.2 Non-Compliance with Placement Cell Directives

Failure to follow instructions from the Placement Team, including failure to update necessary documentation, non-response to placement-related queries, or refusal to follow placement guidance.

8.5.3 Non-Engagement in PIP Exams

Failure to engage in Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) exams, especially after two months without securing a job offer. Unwillingness to seek improvement after repeated attempts is not acceptable.

8.5.4 Violation of placement ethics and terms

8.5.5 Engaging in unethical practices during the job search process, such as misrepresenting job-related details, providing false information to prospective employers, or engaging in fraudulent behavior.

8.5.6 An attendee may be placed on probation for a specified period to demonstrate improved communication and behavior. During this time, they are expected to meet the established conditions.

8.5.7 Not Responding to Placement Opportunities

Failure to respond to valid job opportunities or to follow through on job interview schedules, without valid reasons, will result in the cancellation of placement privileges.

8.6 Unauthorized Alteration or Misuse of Institutional Documents

Any attendee who is currently enrolled, has previously studied, or has voluntarily withdrawn from the institution and is found to have engaged in the unauthorized alteration, forgery, or misuse of any certificate, document, or official record issued by the institution shall be subject to disciplinary action and legal proceedings under applicable laws and regulations. Brototype reserves the right to revoke any certificate or qualifications awarded.

8.7 General Terms of Disciplinary Actions

Upon violation of any of the items listed above, Brototype reserves the right to take further appropriate action, including, but not limited to, taking disciplinary actions or termination of the attendee from the enrolled program with no option of refunds and/or cancellations, and no further educational opportunities, career assistance, or referral/placement services with Brototype. Attendees who violate the above conditions may face any of the following consequences, which may be implemented by Brototype at its discretion:

8.7.1 Warnings

A formal warning will be issued for minor infractions. Continued non-compliance following a warning may lead to further disciplinary action, including termination.

8.7.2 Immediate Termination

Repeated or severe violations will lead to permanent expulsion from the program. This decision will be made after reviewing the attendee's past behavior, performance, the nature and intensity of the misconduct, and any recurring patterns. The institution reserves the sole right to take such action without any obligation for re-admission.

9. Refund Policy

9.1.1 Brototype is committed to maintaining a transparent and attendee-centric approach to its fee refund process. Our policy is carefully designed to balance the needs of attendees while ensuring the program's smooth operation.

9.1.2 By enrolling in the program and making the relevant payment, the attendee acknowledges and agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions outlined in this policy. This policy governs the conditions under which an attendee may opt out or withdraw from a subscribed program and seek a refund, as well as the associated limitations.

9.2 Withdrawal Before Program Start:

If the Attendee withdraws before the program start date, defined as the date on which the Attendee attends their first Foundation batch workshop, the Attendee shall be entitled to a full refund (100%) of the fees paid, subject to completion of the required withdrawal formalities.

9.3 Withdrawal After Program Start:

The program start date is defined as the date on which the Attendee attends their first Foundation batch workshop. If the Attendee withdraws after joining the batch, the refund shall be calculated from the official batch start date as outlined below:

- A. Withdrawal within thirty (30) days: Seventy percent (70%) of the total fee paid shall be refunded.
- B. Withdrawal within sixty (60) days: Fifty percent (50%) of the total fee paid shall be refunded.
- C. Withdrawal within ninety (90) days: Thirty percent (30%) of the total fee paid shall be refunded

9.4 Refund Conditions

Refund requests must be submitted by the attendee within the applicable Refund Window. Requests submitted after the Refund Window has expired will be automatically rejected, and no refund will be issued, regardless of the reason for the withdrawal.

- A. The Refund Window of the program begins with the start of the workshop in the Foundation Program and ends according to the schedule outlined in the section.
- B. It is the responsibility of the attendee to monitor their participation and ensure that they submit a refund request within the Refund Window. BroTOTYPE shall not be liable for any failure to do so.

- C. Brototype does not provide refunds for the lack of usage, dissatisfaction with the program, or for any reason whatsoever after the expiry of the refund window.
- D. Brototype reserves the right to deduct any applicable administrative, banking, or statutory charges, if required by law.
- E. The determination of eligibility for a refund and the calculation thereof by Brototype shall be final and binding, subject to applicable law.

9.5 Refund Process:

9.5.1 Attendees who wish to withdraw from a subscribed program may request a refund of the course fee, subject to the conditions outlined herein. Refund requests will be considered only if they are submitted in writing via email to the designated address (admissions@brototype.com)

9.5.2 Once a refund request is received within the Refund Window and meets the conditions outlined in this policy, Brototype will initiate the refund process.

9.5.3 Refunds will be processed using the same method by which the payment was made. If the payment was made via bank transfer, the refund will be issued via the same bank account from which the original payment was received, or a suitable alternative if necessary.

9.5.4 Brototype shall not be responsible for any delays in the processing of refunds that are caused by third-party financial institutions, payment gateways, or other external factors.

9.5.5 The refund may take up to 21 days to be credited to the attendee's given account, depending on the payment method used and the processing times of the respective financial institution.

9.6 Exclusions from Refund Policy

The following are excluded from the refund policy, but not limited to:

- A. Expiry of the refund window

9.7 Third-Party Financing

9.7.1 In cases where the course fees have been paid by a third party on behalf of the attendee or if the attendee has utilized any third-party financing options, the attendee acknowledges that BroTOTYPE is under no obligation to handle or manage payments with the third party.

9.7.2 The attendee remains responsible for fulfilling any financial obligations to the third party, regardless of their decision to withdraw from the program outside of the Refund Window. BroTOTYPE shall have no liability to any third-party financing arrangements.

9.7.3 If the course fees are being paid or have been paid on behalf of the attendee by a third party (such as an employer, educational institution, or other sponsor), the attendee acknowledges and agrees that the financial obligation to the third party remains in full force and effect.

9.7.4 In the event of a withdrawal from the program, whether within or after the Refund Window, the attendee is solely responsible for ensuring that any outstanding payments to the third party are settled by the third party's terms and conditions.

9.7.5 BroTOTYPE (Packapeer Academy Private Limited) is under no obligation to notify or intervene in third-party financing arrangements or settlements.

9.7.6 If the attendee withdraws from the program after the Refund Window expires, BroTOTYPE is not responsible for ceasing or waiving any payments owed to third parties, and the attendee must continue to honor their financial commitments in full.

9.8 Refund Terms and Acknowledgements

9.8.1 By enrolling in and paying for a program, the attendee acknowledges having read, understood, and agreed to all the terms and conditions outlined in this Refund Policy.

9.8.2 Attendees are encouraged to review the full details of the Refund Policy before making payment for a program.

9.8.3 BroTOTYPE reserves the right to amend or revise this Fee Refund Policy at any time. Any changes to the policy will only apply to admissions after the revision date and will not affect previous attendees.

10 Money-back Policy

The Money-back policy guarantees that attendees who complete the program, by passing the Take-Off Interview, will receive the full amount of the course fee back if they are unable to secure a job within 12 months of finishing the program under the following conditions;

- A. Attendees must have a minimum qualification of Plus Two (+2) or its equivalent at the time of admission and must be at least 18 years old upon course completion (TOI).
- B. The program allows up to 24 failed exam attempts, with two exam absences counted as one failed attempt, and a maximum program duration of 30 months. Attendees must complete the program within these criteria to be considered successfully completed and to maintain quality standards.
- C. Pass the foundation program and Take Off Interview (TOI) within the three attempts.
- D. Attendees are expected to follow the Brocamp Guidelines, signed during the admission process and provided on the website, to ensure successful and effective program completion.
- E. Complete the program without interruptions such as dropping out, voluntarily leaving, or being terminated.
- F. As the program follows a continuous structure, attendees are required to complete it without any breaks and maintain a minimum attendance of 80% throughout its duration.
- G. Finish all the essential assessments of the program, such as various tasks, tests, sessions, activities, projects, and exams, both in technical and communication aspects.
- H. Maintain positive conduct throughout the program, with no disciplinary actions taken.
- I. 100% active participation in all placement activities, including mock interviews, skill assessments, career support sessions, and not declining job opportunities offered by Brotype.
- J. There should be no delays on the part of the attendee in completing tasks, submitting documentation, attending interviews, applying for jobs, and joining a company.
- K. Money-back does not apply to attendees who accept job offers but later resign or do not join the employer.

- L. Brototype reserves the right to revise, modify, or terminate the money-back policy at any time without prior notice.
- M. In the event of unforeseen circumstances beyond our control, such as natural disasters, pandemics, or government actions, money-back guarantees may not be applicable.

11. Statutory Compliance

11.1 Indemnity

Attendees agree to indemnify and hold Brototype and, where applicable, its parent company, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, agents, and employees harmless from any claim or demand, including reasonable attorneys' fees, made by any third party due to or arising out of the attendee's breach of the Terms, violation of any law, or violation of the rights of any third party, including infringement of intellectual property or any other rights of any person or entity. These obligations shall survive the termination of the Terms.

11.2 Severability

If any provision of the guidelines is determined to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be severed from the guidelines. The remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect, and the invalid provision shall, to the extent permissible, be modified to achieve the original intent of the parties in compliance with applicable law. This clause shall apply only to the specific provision deemed invalid and not affect the enforceability of any other provisions.

11.2.1 Brototype reserves the right to modify any provision in its policies and guidelines at any time without any prior notice or obligation to notify attendees.

11.2.3 Any dispute regarding the guidelines shall be governed by and construed under the Laws of Kerala. The jurisdiction for resolving such disputes shall exclusively lie with either the Kozhikode District Court or the Ernakulam District Court.

12. Placements

Brototype is committed to providing guidance and support to all attendees seeking job placements after completing their training. The following terms and conditions outline the eligibility criteria, responsibilities, and expectations for accessing placement support services provided by Brototype.

12.1 Placements Regulations

- A. To receive placement support from the Placement Team, attendees are encouraged to complete the Take-Off Interview (TOI), which serves as an important step toward unlocking placement opportunities.
- B. Attendees are strictly advised to accept job offers only after successfully qualifying in the TOI. If a job offer is accepted before meeting the TOI qualification, the Placement Team, in coordination with the QA Team, will evaluate and decide whether the offer will be considered a valid placement. Non-compliance with this guideline may result in the withdrawal of future placement assistance and access to alumni networks.
- C. Once an attendee qualifies in the TOI, they will become eligible for job placement assistance through Brototype's Placement Cell. This includes access to job referrals, interview coordination, resume reviews, and other resources offered by the Placement Team.
- D. In cases where an attendee's TOI results are invalidated due to non-compliance with the placement process, the Placement Team reserves the right to withdraw placement assistance until the attendee requalifies by retaking the TOI.
- E. Any breaks from the Placement Cell are subject to approval by the Placement Officer in the Placement Cell. Attendees must submit a request for approval via email, detailing the reason for the break.
- F. Breaks exceeding two weeks will require attendees to re-qualify for the Placement Cell by passing the TOI again, ensuring their readiness and alignment with placement opportunities.
- G. The final decision on job offers and placements rests with the employer, as it is determined by their recruitment process. Brototype is dedicated to providing extensive support and resources to help attendees excel in their placement journey, ensuring they are well-prepared for every opportunity. Ultimately, the employer's evaluation and selection process will shape the outcome, but Brototype remains committed to empowering attendees every step of the way.

12.2 Attendee Responsibilities in the Placement Process

12.2.1 Resume Verification and Portfolio Building

- A. Creating and submitting a vetted resume and addressing any issues highlighted by the Placement Coordinator within 3 days.

Packapeer Academy Pvt. Ltd

ROOM NO.III/9,3RD FLOOR,SDF BUILDING(NEOSPACE II) KINFRA TECHNO

INDUSTRIALPARK,CALICUT UNIVERSITY PO KAKKANCHERI Malappuram KL 673635 IN

- B. Completion of the attendee's portfolio in the attendee portal to generate an attendee verification link, which serves as a Brototype certification.
- C. Additional time beyond 3 days does not count toward the 12-month placement tenure related to the money-back policy.

12.2.2 Dedicated Placement Persona for Assistance and Guidance

Each attendee will have a dedicated Placement Officer and Coordinator for personalized guidance. The Placement Officer assists with interview preparation, offer negotiations, and decision-making, while the Coordinator manages back-and-forth communication and interview updates.

12.2.3 Active Participation in Placement Probation

Placement Probation is designed to help candidates understand the placement process and gain hands-on experience in tackling the job hunt journey. It is a fifteen (15) day program where each attendee is instructed to reach out to companies, apply on their own with a customized plan, and secure interviews. By doing this, each candidate will understand the basics of how the market works and how to increase their odds of getting interviews.

12.2.4 Clear and Transparent Communication

- A. Attendees are instructed to provide clear and timely updates regarding interviews, machine tests, and offers with the assigned officer or coordinator. This ensures that the entire placement process is smooth and streamlined.
- B. Attendees should not accept or reject any offers that they received through the placement team without discussing them with the placement team. This is to avoid any sort of miscommunication between any of the parties involved.
- C. Attendees should not further negotiate an offer with an interviewing company without prior instruction from the placement team.
- D. Attendees should keep a professional attitude and behaviour towards the placement team as well as the interviewing companies; failure to do so may result in strict disciplinary actions.

12.2.5 Active Job Applications

- A. Continuously apply for job opportunities until successfully placed.
- B. Continuously reach out to recruiters and founders through LinkedIn and other professional platforms as part of the placement process.

12.2.6 Job Interview Preparation

- A. Prepare thoroughly for interviews and maintain readiness for interviews at all times to avoid missed opportunities.
- B. Practice and revise domain knowledge daily by taking mock interviews using Chat GPT and other tools, and share them in the respective placement group.

12.2.7 Adherence to all the Placement Guidelines

Attendees are expected to adhere to all placement guidelines established by the Placement Team. Each process within the Placement Cell is carefully designed based on active market research and insights from client companies, alumni, and a global network of developers. Updates to the guidelines are thoughtfully implemented to support attendees in securing jobs within the IT industry.

12.2.8 Maintaining Code of Conduct

Attendees are expected to uphold a high standard of professionalism and integrity throughout the placement process. Violating these principles can lead to serious consequences. This includes, but is not limited to:

- A. If an employer informs BroTOTYPE of any dishonest behavior during an interview, such as using unauthorized aids or providing false information, it may result in immediate termination of the placement process.
- B. Attendees have to collaborate with the Placement Team before negotiating job offers. Engaging the Placement Team ensures a professional and coordinated approach that preserves strong relationships with BroTOTYPE's partner companies and safeguards future opportunities for all participants.
- C. Failing to appear for interviews without a valid reason or treating interview opportunities carelessly is considered a violation of BroTOTYPE's code of conduct. This includes missing interviews without prior notice or not putting in sufficient effort to prepare and perform well.
- D. Any form of unprofessional conduct, such as inappropriate communication, disrespectful behavior towards employers or fellow attendees, or not adhering to the placement guidelines, can result in disciplinary action, including removal from the placement process.

12.3 Role of the Placement Team

The Placement Team will assist attendees by:

- A. Offering job referrals to potential employers.
- B. Coordinating interview schedules with potential employers.
- C. Offering feedback and coaching to improve job search strategies and interview performance.
- D. Providing updates and communication about placement opportunities.
- E. Conducting periodic evaluations to ensure continued alignment with job requirements.
- F. Offering support through performance reviews and improvement plans, when necessary.

12.4 Placements PIP

12.4.1 If an attendee does not secure an opportunity within two (2) months of completing the Take Off Interview (TOI) or after receiving rejections in ten (10) job interviews, whichever comes first, they will be enrolled in the Performance Improvement Plan (PIP).

12.4.2 PIP exams will be conducted monthly, starting from the second month post-TOI, and will continue each month thereafter until the completion of the 12-month placement tenure. Attendance and active participation in each PIP Exam are mandatory to continue receiving support and opportunities within the Placement Cell.

12.4.3 Attendees must qualify for the PIP exam to re-enter the Placement Cell. The PIP exam is designed as an interview-like evaluation to help attendees revisit and revise all topics learned and reflect on their skills and knowledge. An attendee will have three (3) attempts to clear the PIP exam.

A. First Attempt

The first PIP exam must be completed within 2-3 days of moving to PIP status. This exam will assess the attendee's progress and readiness for job placement. The Placement Team may adjust the exam date if there are any ongoing interviews present at the time of moving to PIP status.

B. Second Attempt

A second exam will be conducted within 1 week following the first attempt. This provides attendees with an opportunity to improve based on the feedback provided during the first exam.

C. Third Attempt

If necessary, a third and final attempt will be conducted, with 1 week of preparation time following the second attempt.

12.4.4 The preparation time during the PIP process will not be counted toward the 12-month placement tenure. This ensures that the timeline for the completion of the placement tenure is not affected by the PIP process.

12.4.5 If an attendee fails to complete any of the PIP exam after three attempts, the Placement Team, along with the QA Team, will conduct a comprehensive exam of the attendee's situation. Based on this exam, the Placement Team will determine the next steps, which may include cessation of further placement assistance.

12.4.6 If an attendee is intentionally delaying or not cooperating with the requirement to attend the PIP exam, or if they are intentionally unwilling to attend it, they will be removed from the placement cell. This will result in their ineligibility for future placement assistance and access to the alumni network.

12.4.7 PIP Meeting

A meeting with the Placement Team will be held before an attendee is placed into the PIP, and again each time they are moved to PIP status. The purpose of this meeting is to assess the attendees' current situation, review past performance, and provide actionable feedback and strategies for improvement.

12.5 Post-Placement Support

12.5.1 In the event of termination or resignation from a job, attendees have the option to re-enter the Placement Cell for continued placement support at no additional cost. This ongoing support includes access to resources, guidance, and opportunities to find new job placements. To qualify for this support, attendees must first complete the Experienced-TOI and demonstrate prior engagement with the Placement Cell's support services.

12.5.2 For attendees aiming to advance into experienced roles, Brototype offers the Experienced-TOI, a simulation of real-world interviews specifically designed for experienced developers. This evaluation prepares attendees for the challenges of advanced interview processes. Upon completing the Experienced-TOI, candidates will be assigned a dedicated Placement Officer who will provide end-to-end support throughout their placement journey. Brototype's Placement Team will actively share candidates' profiles with companies and coordinate interview scheduling, ensuring comprehensive assistance for their career advancement.

12.5.3 During post-placement support, if an attendee commits to an opportunity and is selected, it is expected that they accept the offer. By attending the interview and expressing interest, the attendee indicates their consent and enthusiasm for pursuing the opportunity provided. Offer trading is strictly not allowed, as it can jeopardize the relationship Brototype has with its clients. Maintaining integrity and respecting the commitments made during the placement process is crucial for upholding the trust and collaboration between Brototype and its client companies.

12.5.4 Brototype expects candidates to maintain active participation and demonstrate responsibility in securing their career advancements. To ensure the process runs smoothly and effectively, the Placement Team may need to discontinue support if a candidate is not responsive or fails to engage in the process as expected. By maintaining professionalism and dedication, candidates can maximize the value of the support provided and continue to benefit from future opportunities.

12.6 Data Sharing and Confidentiality

Attendees are required to share their placement details in any case with Brototype and hereby consent to the public sharing of their personal and placement details on Brototype's website and social media platforms, including, but not limited to, the use of videos, photos, company details, salary packages, and other promotional materials for Brototype's marketing purposes. Placement details refer to any job placements or offers secured independently or with Brototype's support, regardless of course completion.

13. Student Success Team

13.1 The Student Success Team is here to guide and support attendees throughout their journey at Brototype. From the Foundation Period to final placements, the team works closely with attendees to ensure a smooth, productive, and fulfilling experience at every stage of the program, with a strong focus on attendees' success. Active participation is crucial for mutual success. Attendees should stay engaged by:

- A. Attending and participating in all meetings, appointments, workshops, group sessions, and activities scheduled by the team.
- B. Following through on recommendations, strategies, or action plans provided by the team.

13.2 The well-being of attendees is a critical component of their success. If an attendee is experiencing stress, anxiety, or other mental health concerns affecting their academics, the team can assist in accessing the necessary support, including counseling and stress-management exercises.

13.3 The Student Success Team's counseling service supports attendees in overcoming academic challenges. It does not provide medical diagnoses or treatment; attendees requiring medical advice should consult licensed professionals.

13.4 The Student Success Team will regularly assess attendees' academic performance, goals, and well-being. If something isn't working, be open to feedback and make necessary adjustments with the help of the Student Success Team.

13.5 The Student Success Team is committed to providing a supportive and confidential space where attendees can share any concerns. Attendees' feedback helps to improve services and ensure that ongoing and future attendees receive the best support possible.

13.6 The Student Success Team is not equipped or trained to solve personal matters such as family issues, financial concerns, legal problems, or other private challenges.

13.7 Activities

Participation in any activities conducted as part of the program to promote physical fitness, mental health, and overall well-being is mandatory. These sessions are thoughtfully designed to foster a healthier and more balanced lifestyle, and attendees' active involvement is greatly appreciated.

14. Grievance and Feedback Cell

14.1 The Grievance and Feedback Team is committed to ensuring a supportive and transparent environment for everyone who has been academically associated with the institution.

14.2 The team is available to address any complaints, concerns, suggestions, or feedback with the utmost care, aiming to continuously improve the overall experience and uphold our shared values.

14.3 Eligibility to Submit Feedback or Complaints

All individuals who have had an academic relationship with the institution are eligible to use this service. This includes current attendees, alumni, individuals who have taken admission but are yet to join a batch, as well as those who have voluntarily withdrawn or have been terminated. We value every voice and are committed to listening and responding with fairness and care.

14.4 Attendees can mail to the Grievance and Feedback cell regarding the following issues:

- A. Academic Issues: Concerns about course content, program quality, exams, processes, and grading.
- B. Administrative Issues: Problems with schedules or communication with staff.
- C. Faculty or Staff Behavior: Complaints regarding unprofessional behavior, discrimination, harassment, or any violation of conduct by faculty or staff.

- D. Attendee Behavior: Issues involving bullying, harassment, or misconduct by fellow Attendees.
- E. Program Structure: Suggestions or complaints about course structure, curriculum, or overall program design.
- F. Facilities or Resources: Concerns about the availability or quality of learning resources, technology, or workspaces.
- G. General Feedback: Any other suggestions for improving the program, campus experience, or support services.

14.5 Process of grievance resolution

- A. Sending feedback or concerns to grievanceandfeedback@brototype.com
- B. Receiving acknowledgment of the submission.
- C. The team will investigate and respond with a resolution or progress update.

The Attendee Guidelines are subject to periodic review and updates to maintain high institutional standards and ensure continued quality of service. All attendees are encouraged to regularly review the guidelines on our website (<https://brototype.com/termsandconditions/>) to stay informed about any changes or new provisions.

I hereby acknowledge that I have read, understood, and agreed to comply with the policies and guidelines set forth by the program. I confirm that I am mentally and physically in a state of full engagement, with a commitment to fully focused learning in this program.
